YIZKOR

Opening Words

The Wisdom of Our Tradition

Our tradition shows great wisdom in teaching us to gather for services of remembrance on Yom Kippur and on the three pilgrimage festivals (Pesach, Shavuot, and Sukkot). These moments that mark the seasons of the year – and the seasons of our lives – awaken strong memories of relationships that shaped us, sustained us, and sometimes challenged us; and of holy days we shared with loved ones and cherished friends.

When they are gone, we can still affirm the beautiful and lasting values we learned from them, and remember them in all of their humanness. One of the ways we do that is by coming together as a community of comfort and care.

From the inception a thousand years ago, when it was prayed by Ashkenazic Jews on the morning of Yom Kippur, Yizkor has had two profound themes: God's embrace of the loved ones who are beyond our reach; and our commitment to do the good deeds that are within our reach by giving tzedakah in their memory. When we say Yizkor (May God remember...) we proclaim our faith that those who have died have significance now and forever.

Eli, Eli

Eli, Eli,

shelo yigameir l'olam:

hachol v'hayam,

rishrush shel hamayim,

y'rak hashamayim,

t'filat haadam.

אֱלִי, אֱלִי,
שֶׁלֹא יִגְמַר לְעוֹלָם
הַחֹל וְהַיָּם,
רִשְׁרֻשׁ שֶׁל הַמַּיִם,
בָּרֶק הַשָּׁמַיִם,
תְּפִלַּת הָאָדָם.

*Eli, Eli, I pray that these things never end -
the sand and the sea,
the rush of the waters,
the crash of the heavens,
the prayer of the heart.*

Mizmor – Prayersong

Adonai, I yearn only to be near You, though at times I seem remote.
I cannot find the way unaided:
teach me the faithful service You would have me do,
show me Your ways, guide me, lead me, release me from the prison of unknowing
while I still can make amends.
Do not despise my lowly state,
Before I grow so weak, so heavy with mortality that I bend and fall,
and my bones, brittle with age become food for moth and worm, be my help, O be my help!
Where my forebearers went, there go I
Yes, I know it...
Their resting place is mine.

I know it.

Like them I am a stranger passing through this life.

Since the womb of earth is my allotted portion.

and since I've chased the wind from the beginning of my days, when will I come to set my house in order?

The passions You Yourself have made a part of me have kept me rapt within the passing scene, and how, enslaved to passion I've been,

a prey to fierce and fiery hungers, how, I ask, could I have served You as I needed to?

But now the time has come to ask:

why all this ambition, why the quest for high estate,
when tomorrow I must die?

Why this expense of spirit,

when tomorrow I mourn the passing time?

These days and nights combine to bring me to the end;

they scatter my thoughts to the winds,

they return my frame to the dust.

What now can I say in my defense?

What brave words remain to shield me from my truth?

My nature has pursued me, possessed me, driven and flayed me, a doubtful friend from childhood on.

What then do I really have besides Your presence?

Stripped of my pretensions, naked at the last, here I stand, and only Your goodness can clothe and shelter me.

For nothing now remains but this:

God, I yearn only to be near You!

From Psalm 16: Secure in the Presence of God

Shiviti Adonai l'negdi tamid;	שׁוִׁיתִי יי, לְנֶגְדִי תָמִיד
ki mimini: bal-emet.	כִּי מִיְמִינִי בַל־אֲמוּט.
Lachein samach libi,	לָכֵן שִׂמַח לְבִי וַיִּגַּל כְּבוֹדִי
vayagel k'vodi;
af-b'sari yishkon lavetach.	אֶפְבְּסָרִי יִשְׁכֹּן לְבֶטֶחַ.
Ki lo-taazov nafshi lish-ol;	כִּי לֹא־תַעְזֹב נַפְשִׁי לְשָׂאוֹל
lo-titein chasid'cha lirot	לֹא־תֵתֵן חֲסִידְךָ לְרֹאוֹת שְׁחַת.
shachat.
Todi-eini orach chayim,	תּוֹדִיעֵנִי אֶרֶח חַיִּים
sova s'machot et panecha,	שׁוּבָע שְׂמָחוֹת אֶת־פָּנֶיךָ
n'imot bimin'cha netzach.	נְעֻמוֹת בְּיָמֶיךָ נֶצַח.

Keep me, Eternal One, for in You I find refuge, and in You my soul finds its peace.
Guardian of all my days,
You are my cup from which I drink,
and the portion of my life.
I thank You for guiding my steps,
for the inner voice that instructs me.

I have set You before me always,
with You beside me I cannot fail.
So my heart is glad, my soul rejoices,
and all of me can rest secure:
for You will not abandon me in death.
You show me the path of life,
and Your presence is fullness of joy.

If some messenger were to come to us with the offer that death should be overthrown, but with the one inseparable condition that birth should also cease; if the existing generation were given the chance to live for ever, but on the clear understanding that never again would there be a child, or a youth, or first love, never again new persons with new hopes, new ideas, new achievements, ourselves for always and never any others – could the answer be in doubt?

We shall not fear the summons of death; we shall remember those who have gone before us, and those who will come after us.

“Alas for those who cannot sing, but die with all their music in them.” Let us treasure the time we have, and resolve to use it well, counting each moment precious – a chance to apprehend some truth, to experience some beauty, to conquer some evil, to relieve some suffering, to love and be loved, to achieve something of lasting worth.

Help us, Adonai, to fulfill the promise that is in each of us, and so to conduct ourselves that, generations hence, it will be true to say of us: The world is better because, for a brief space, they lived in it.

Enosh kechatzir yamav, k'tzitz hasadeh kein yatzitz.
 Ki ruach av'rah-bo v'einenu,
 v'lo-yakirenu od m'komo.
 V'chesed Adonai mei-olam
 v'ad olam al-y'rei-av;
 v'tzidkato livnei vanim - l'shom'rei v'rito.

אָנוש כַּחצִיר יָמָיו,
 כְּצִיץ הַשָּׂדֶה כִּין יֵצִיץ.
 כִּי רוּחַ עֲבָרָה־בוֹ וְאֵינָנוּ,
 וְלֹא־יִכְיְרֵנוּ עוֹד מִקּוֹמוֹ.
 וְחֶסֶד יי מֵעוֹלָם
 וְעַד־עוֹלָם עַל־יְרֵאָיו,
 וְצִדְקָתוֹ לִבְנֵי בָנִים,
 לְשׁוֹמְרֵי בְרִיתוֹ.

Our days -
 Like the grass of the field, like flowers in the meadow vanish in a momentary gust of wind, gone, never to be seen again.
 But God's love is infinite and with us forever.
 God's goodness reaches far into the future -
 This is the gift of the covenant.

Psalms 103:15-18

○ God of life, our times are in Your hand. One generation comes into the world to be blessed with days of peace and safety, another goes through the valley of the shadow, enduring the cruelties of persecution and war. Heartbreaking have been the times that have fallen to our lot, ○ God. We have lived through years of tyranny and destruction; we are schooled in sorrow and acquainted with grief. We have seen the just defeated, the innocent driven from their homes, and the righteous suffer a martyrdom as merciless as any ages have witnessed.

At this hour of memorial, we recall with grief all Your children who have perished through the cruelty of their oppressor, victims of demonic hate; the aged and the young, the learned and unlettered – all driven in multitudes along the road of pain and pitiless death. Their very presence on earth was begrudged them, for they brought Your covenant of mercy and justice to the recollection of Your enemies; they perished because they were a symbol of Your eternal law; their death has brought darkness to the human soul.

They lie in nameless graves, in far-off forests and lonely fields. And the substance of many was scattered by the winds to the earth's four corners. Yet they shall not be forgotten. We take them into our hearts and give them a place beside the cherished memories of our own loved ones. They now are ours.

We pray to You, ○ Source of mercy, that Your Torah to which these Your children bore witness in life and in death, may come to glow with a renewed light in the human soul; that remembering them, we may sanctify Your name in all the world. Thus will their memory become an enduring blessing to all Your children.

A Psalm of David.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul;

He guideth me in straight paths for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou hast anointed my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.

*In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.*

In the opening buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

*In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.*

In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

Let us now remember. Let us bring to mind those who have been taken from us in the past year and those who died in the more distant past: those who died peacefully in old age, and those who perished in the midst of their days; those who were bound to us by close family ties, and those we knew as friends or fellow congregants.

The lives of some of them were like great oaks, whose roots were thrust deep into the soil of life, whose branches were widespread, casting shade and coolness for us against the heat and blaze of the years.

Others were like the tentative flight of fledgling birds, rising on young, exploring wings, their strength not fully realized; and suddenly their flight was ended in a tragic instant, and we look sadly upon what was their promise, now sealed in death.

Still others were like small tapers burning against the night, casting the pure light of their few and innocent years upon our paths: and then they were swallowed by the dark, and we walk with unkindled hearts through the desert of their unfulfillment.

Long lives, strongly rooted; shorter lives, cut off in mid-flight; brief and tender lives, a candle's trembling flames; these are our dear ones, their hopes, their dreams, their meaning consecrated by us who remember them in this loving service of Yizkor.

יִזְכּוֹר אֱלֹהִים נַשְׁמוֹת יַקִּירֵי..... שֶׁהָלְכוּ לְעוֹלָמָם. אָנָּה
תְּהַיְינָה נַפְשוֹתֵיהֶם צָרוּרוֹת בְּצָרוֹר הַחַיִּים וְתֵהִי מְנוּחָתָם כְּבוֹד. שְׁבַע שְׁמָחוֹת אֶת-פָּנֶיךָ, נְעִימוֹת בְּיָמֶיךָ נֹצֵחַ. אָמֵן.

Silent Meditation - Yizkor Prayer

May I always remember my loved ones who have died and honor their memory by living uprightly and showing kindness to my fellow human beings. May their memory inspire me so to conduct myself that they may live in me and, that through my life, their highest ideals and noblest hopes may be brought nearer to fulfillment.

Yet I feel that something precious has been taken from me, and I tend to think of it as something I have lost, instead of something I have had. But rather than murmuring because precious ones have been taken from me, may I be grateful for the time they were with me. May I recount the past days not as loss, but as gain – the gain that comes with new courage, with nobler tasks and with a renewed awareness of life.

Yizkor - In Remembrance of a Father:

May God remember the soul of my beloved father who has gone to his eternal rest. In tribute to his memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep his soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

Yizkor - In Remembrance of a Mother:

May God remember the soul of my beloved mother who has gone to her eternal rest. In tribute to her memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep her soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

Yizkor - In Remembrance of Relatives and Friends:

May God remember the soul of my beloved relatives and friends who have gone to their eternal rest. In tribute to their memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep their souls bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

Yizkor - In Remembrance of Our Martyrs:

May God remember the soul of our martyrs who gave their lives for the sanctification of His name, for the preservation of our people, and for the redemption of the Holy Land. May their heroism and sacrificial devotion be reflected in our thoughts and deeds. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life and their memories abide among us as an enduring blessing. Amen.

Yizkor - In Remembrance of a Wife:

May God remember the soul of my beloved wife who has gone to her eternal rest. In tribute to her memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep her soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

Yizkor - In Remembrance of a Husband:

May God remember the soul of my beloved husband who has gone to his eternal rest. In tribute to his memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep his soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

Yizkor - In Remembrance of a Son:

May God remember the soul of my beloved son who has gone to his eternal rest. In tribute to his memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep his soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

Yizkor - In Remembrance of a Daughter:

May God remember the soul of my beloved daughter who has gone to her eternal rest. In tribute to her memory I pledge to perform acts of charity and goodness. May the deeds I perform and the prayers I offer help to keep her soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen.

Prayer for United States Armed Forces

Eternal and compassionate God whose mercies fill the earth, at this sacred time of remembrance our thoughts turn to all the men and women of the Armed Forces of the United States who have given their lives in the defense of freedom for all people.

Keep these pure souls, who shine brightly throughout Your creation, sheltered firmly beneath Your wings. May the memory of their lives serve as an inspiration to us and as a comfort to all their loved ones. May they rest in peace among all the righteous of our people. And let us say, Amen.

Prayer for the Victims of October 7

May God remember all the women, men and children of Israel who were brutally murdered on the 7th of October. We are shattered, God, our hearts are breaking on this Yom Kippur. Our minds cannot grasp the enormity of the loss. We keep thinking we will wake up from this nightmare, we wish we could make sense of the senselessness of this tragedy. We wish we could have protected every soul who was brutally slaughtered.

We wish we could understand Your silence, God. The cries of the victims echo through the universe. God of the broken-hearted, God of the living, God of the dead, send comfort and strength to the grieving, send hope to the children, send healing to Israel.

We pray they are at peace now, far away from the horror they endured. Their lives ended in tragedy, but that is not how we will remember them. We will remember their heroism, their love for family and for life itself, their faith in the future, their laughter, their kindness, their determination, their spirit of hope, their passion for Israel and for peace.

Teach us, God, to believe that we can rise up from this tragedy with hope for Israel, hope for our people, hope for peace, hope for the new year that is upon us.

Let them find peace in Your presence, God. Their lives were extinguished, but their light will forever shine upon us and illuminate our way. Amen.

by Rabbi Naomi Levy

Prayer for Israel Defense Forces

He Who blessed our forefathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob – may He bless the fighters of the Israel Defense Forces, who stand guard over our land and the cities of our God, from the border of the Lebanon to the desert of Egypt, and from the Great Sea unto the approach of the Aravah, on the land, in the air, and on the sea.

May the Almighty cause the enemies who rise up against us to be struck down before them. May the Holy One, Blessed is He, preserve and rescue our fighters from every trouble and distress and from every plague and illness, and may He send blessing and success in their every endeavor.

May He lead our enemies under our soldiers' sway and may He grant them salvation and crown them with victory. And may there be fulfilled for them the verse: For it is the Lord your God, Who goes with you to battle your enemies for you to save you.

Traditional Prayer for IDF Soldiers / Masa Israel

Prayer for State of Israel

Rock and Redeemer of Israel
Bless the State of Israel [that it may be] the start of flowering of Redemption.

Shield it with Your love
Spread over it the shelter of Your peace

Guide its leaders and advisors with Your light and Your truth.
Establish for them Your good counsel.

Strengthen the hands of the defenders of our Holy Land
Deliver them; place the crown of victory upon them

Bless the land with peace and everlasting joy.
And let us say: Amen.

Prayer for Those Who Died for the Sake of Your Name

May God remember the souls of those slain for their devotion to You – all who died al Kiddush HaShem – our brothers and sisters, in every generation, killed because they were Jews: the ones who suffered fire and the ones who suffered water to sanctify Your name.

May God remember those – in our own time – killed in acts of hate, acts of terror against the Jewish people, against the Jewish state, and against human beings of every nation. Though holiness was diminished by their deaths, may their memories be turned to good, their legacies a sanctification of Your name.

Let us honor their memory by word, by deed, by acts of hope and kindness. Let us honor them through the study of history and by working against bigotry and bias. As we cling to their memory, so may God embrace their souls and give them everlasting peace. Together we say: Amen.

Prayer for the Six Million and for All Who Died in the Shoah

Avinu Malkeinu:

Let there be perfect rest for the souls of the six million who died as Jews in the flames of the Shoah. Let there be perfect rest for the countless millions who died because of race, religion or nationality, political affiliation or sexual orientation. Hold them close to You forever. Seal their souls for everlasting life in the shelter of Your presence, for You are their eternal home. Together we say: Amen.

Prayer for the Righteous of the Nations – Chasidei Umot HaOlam

Creator of all:

Let there be perfect rest for the souls of the righteous, whose hands and hearts were open, whose self-sacrifice was limitless. They risked all they had to hide and rescue our brothers and sisters during the Shoah. As they gave shelter and care to others, shelter them in Your presence – for they are the holy and pure, and their light shines like the radiance of heaven. Hold them close to You forever. May they find a home in You, and may they rest in peace. Together we say: Amen.

Prayer for Those Who Died for Our Country

Merciful God, God Most High, may there be perfect rest in Your presence for all who placed themselves in peril and died protecting our country, our citizens, and our highest principles. With gratitude we honor their bravery and devotion. With love we pray: hold them close to You forever among the holy and pure whose light shines like the radiance of heaven.

Let the words of the prophet Isaiah be their timeless memorial:

The work of righteousness shall be peace, yielding quietness and confidence forever. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. Then the glory of God Eternal shall be revealed, and all life, as one, shall behold it.

Merciful God, shelter those who served and died for the sake of peace; shelter them forever among the souls of the righteous. Amen.

WHAT IS the correct way to stand at a memorial ceremony? Erect or stooped, pulled taut as a tent or in the slumped posture of mourning, head bowed like the guilty or held high in a collective protest against death, eyes gaping frozen like the eyes of the dead or shut tight, to see stars inside? And what is the best time for remembering? At noon when shadows are hidden beneath our feet, or at twilight when shadows lengthen like longings that have no beginning, no end, lide God?

Yehuda Amichai

A Remembrance for Those Who Fell on the Battlefields of Israel

Kadosh Yisrael – Holy One of Israel:

Remember, on this holy day, the courage and devotion of Your daughters and sons: remember the ones who stood for independence in 1948, and those, in every generation since, who served in the Israel Defense Forces, placed their lives in mortal danger, and fell in battle.

Remember them all – Your sons, Your daughters – all who died for the sake of Israel's rebirth in our time.

Am Yisrael – People of Israel:

May we be blessed with strength as we remember and mourn over the beauty of their youth, the glory of their gifts, their sacred willingness to serve, their self-sacrifice on fields of honor.

Above all, let these be their crowning victory: a lasting peace; the memory of their undying hope forever sealed in Israel's heart. Together we say: Amen.

Baal harachamim yastireim	בַּעַל הַרַחֲמִים יִסְתִּירֵם
b'seiter k'nafav l'olamim;	בְּסֵתֶר כַּנָּפָיו לְעוֹלָמִים,
v'yitzror bitzror hachayim	וַיִּצְרֹר בְּצִרּוֹר הַחַיִּים
et nishmatam.	אֶת נִשְׁמָתָם.
Adonai - hu nachalatam,	יְיָ הוּא נַחֲלָתָם.
V'yanuchu b'shalom al mishkavam.	וַיְנַוְחוּ בְּשָׁלוֹם עַל מִשְׁכָּבָם.
V'nomar: Amen.	וְנֹאמַר: אָמֵן.

Merciful God, God Most High: Let there be perfect rest for the souls of our loved ones who have gone into eternity.

May they find shelter in Your presence among the holy and pure whose light shines like the radiance of heaven. Compassionate God, hold them close to You forever.

May their souls be bound up in the bond of life eternal.

May they find a home in You. And may they rest in peace. Together we say: Amen.

Birth is a Beginning

and death a destination.

And life is a journey:

from childhood to maturity and youth to age;

from innocence to awareness and ignorance to knowing;

from foolishness to discretion and then, perhaps to wisdom;

from weakness to strength or strength to weakness –

and often, back again.

From health to sickness and back, we pray, to health again;

from offense to forgiveness,

from loneliness to love,

from joy to gratitude,

from pain to compassion, and grief to understanding –

from fear to faith;

from defeat to defeat to defeat –

until, looking backward or ahead

we see that victory lies not at some high place along the way, but in having made the journey, stage by stage

a sacred pilgrimage.

Birth is a beginning

and death a destination.

But life is a journey,

from birth to death

to life everlasting.

Mourner's Kaddish

May God's great name come to be magnified and sanctified in the world God brought into being.

May God's majestic reign prevail soon in your lives, in your days,
and in the life of the whole House of Israel.
and let us say: Amen.

May God's great name be blessed to the end of time.

May God's holy name come to be blessed, acclaimed, and glorified;
revered, raised, and beautified, honored and praised.

Blessed is the One who is entirely beyond all the blessings and hymns, all the praises and words of comfort that we speak in the world;
and let us say: Amen.

Let perfect peace abound;

let there be abundant life for us and for all Israel.

May the One who makes peace in the high heavens make peace for us, all Israel, and all who dwell on earth;
and let us say: Amen.

As you recall loved ones at this time of year, we invite you to consider a meaningful contribution to the Cemetery Care Fund in their memory. Your gifts help build this fund to ensure perpetual upkeep and care for our Temple Emanu-El sections at Northside, Elmwood and Oak Hill / Jasper. Gifts also can be made to help maintain our Gadsden and Bessemer cemeteries.

May the memories of our loved ones be a source of comfort and blessing always.
